 - (4) References to "person" shall include corporations and all other entities which are capable of having a legal existence.

ISSUE OF SHARES AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the unissued shares of the Company shall be at the disposal of the directors who may offer, allot, grant options over, or otherwise dispose of them to such persons at such times and for such consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as the directors may determine.
 - (2) Section 46 of the Act in respect of pre-emptive rights shall not apply to the issue, allotment, transfer, purchase, redemption, or acquisition of shares in the Company.
 - (3) The Company shall not be authorized to issue bearer shares; convert registered shares to bearer shares; or exchange registered shares for bearer shares.
 - (4) The directors shall issue no shares for a consideration other than money, unless the directors have passed a resolution stating:
 - (a) the amount to be credited for the issue of the Shares;

- (b) their determination of the reasonable present cash value of the non-money consideration for the issue; and
 - (c) that, in their opinion, the present cash value of the non money consideration for the issue is not less than the amount to be credited for the issue of the Shares.
- (5) The directors shall not issue a share for consideration which shall be less than the par value of the share.
- 4. The directors may issue shares in the Company with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise as the directors may determine.
- 5. The Company shall keep and maintain a register of members which shall contain the following:

 - (d) the date on which a person ceased to be a shareholder of the Company.
- 6. (1) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members, being the holder of shares in the Company shall, without payment, be entitled to a certificate signed by two directors or two officers or by one director or one officer of the Company or under the common seal of the Company with or without the signature of any director or officer of the Company.
- (2) The certificate shall specify the share or shares held and the par value thereof (if any) provided that in respect of a share, or shares, held jointly by several persons, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
- (3) If a certificate is worn out or lost it may be renewed on production of the worn out certificate, or on satisfactory proof of its loss together with such indemnity as the directors may reasonably require.
- (4) Any member receiving a share certificate shall indemnify and hold the Company and its officers harmless from any loss or liability which it or they may incur by reason of wrongful or fraudulent use or representation made by any person by virtue of the possession of such a certificate.

7. A share issued by the Company upon conversion of, or in exchange for, another share or a debt obligation or other security in the Company, shall be treated for all purposes as having been issued for money equal to the consideration received or deemed to have been received by the Company in respect of the other share, debt obligation or security.
8. The Company may issue fractions of a share and a fractional share shall have the same corresponding fractional liabilities, limitations, preferences, privileges, qualifications, restrictions, rights and other attributes of a whole share of the same class or series of shares.
9. The consideration in respect of the shares constitutes capital to the extent designated by the directors and the excess constitutes surplus, except that the directors must designate as capital an amount of the consideration that is at least equal to the amount that the share is entitled to as a preference, if any, in the assets of the Company upon liquidation of the Company.
10. Subject to the provisions of the Act, shares may be issued on the terms that they are redeemable, or at the option of the Company be liable to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the directors before or at any time of the issue of the shares may determine.

ACQUISITION OF OWN SHARES AND REDEMPTION OF SHARES

11. (1) The directors may, in accordance with the Act, on behalf of the Company purchase, redeem, or otherwise acquire any of the Company's own shares for such consideration as they consider fit, and may either cancel or hold such shares as treasury shares.

 - (3) The directors may redeem any such share at a premium.
 - (4) The directors shall by resolution determine whether sections 60, 61, and 62 of the Act shall apply to the acquisition of shares.
 - (5) Upon cancellation of a share, the amount included as capital of the Company with respect to that share shall be deducted from the capital of the Company.
12. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future, or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share.

NOTICE OF TRUST

13. No notice of a trust, whether expressed, implied or constructive, shall be entered in the register of members.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

14. (1) Shares in the Company may be transferred by a written instrument signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee or such other manner or form and subject to such evidence as the directors shall consider appropriate.
 - (2) The instrument of transfer shall be signed by the transferee if registration as a holder of the share imposes a liability to the Company on the transferee.
 - (3) The instrument of transfer of a registered share shall be sent to the Company for registration.
15. (1) The Company shall register a transfer of shares by entering the name of the transferor of the shares in the register of members, if the directors are satisfied.
 - (2) If the directors of the Company are satisfied that an instrument of transfer relating to Shares has been signed but that the instrument has been lost or destroyed, they may resolve by Resolution:
 - (a) to accept such evidence of the transfer of shares as they consider appropriate; and
 - (b) that the transferee's name should be entered in the register of members notwithstanding the absence of the instrument of transfer.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

16. (1) The personal representative of a deceased member, the guardian of an incompetent member, or the trustee of a bankrupt member shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to his share.
 - (2) Such personal representative, guardian or trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any rights as a member of the Company until that person has proceeded in the manner set out below.
 - (3) The production to the Company of any document which is evidence of:
 - (a) a grant of probate of the will, or grant of letters of administration of the estate, or confirmation of the appointment as executor, of a deceased member; or

- (b) the appointment of a guardian of an incompetent member; or
- (c) the trustee of a bankrupt member; or
- (d) any other documentation providing reasonable evidence of the applicants beneficial ownership of the shares, shall be accepted by the Company.

- (4) If the deceased, incompetent member or bankrupt member is domiciled outside the British Virgin Islands the Company shall accept the documents referred to in sub-regulation (3) above, if such documents are issued by a foreign court which had competent jurisdiction in the matter.
 - (5) For the purposes of establishing whether or not a foreign court had competent jurisdiction in the matter the directors may obtain appropriate legal advice.
 - (6) The directors may also require an indemnity to be given by the personal representative, guardian, or trustee of the member.
17. An application by any such person to be registered as a member shall for all purposes be deemed to be a transfer of shares of the deceased, incompetent, or bankrupt member and the directors shall treat it as such.
18. Any person who has become entitled to a share in consequence of the death, incompetence, or bankruptcy of any member may, instead of being registered himself, request in writing that some person to be named by him be registered as the transferee of such share and such request shall likewise be treated as if it were a transfer.
19. What amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by the court having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case.

LIEN

20. (1) The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share which has been registered in the name of a member, whether singly or jointly with any other person, for all the debts incurred before or after the notice to the Company of any interest of any person other than such member, and whether the time for the payment or discharge of the same shall have actually arrived or not, and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such member or his estate and any other person, whether a member of the Company or not.
- (2) The Company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

- (3) The directors may at any time either generally, or in any particular case, waive any lien that has arisen or may declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this regulation.
21. The Company may sell, in such manner as the directors may by resolution determine, any share on which the Company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless the sum in respect of which the lien exists is payable nor until the expiration of twenty one days after a notice in writing, demanding payment of the sum payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default of such payment, has been served on the holder of the share for the time being.
22. (1) The net proceeds of the sale by the Company of any share on which it has a lien shall be applied in or towards payment in respect of which the lien exists so far as the same is payable and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not payable as existed upon the share prior to the sale) be paid to the holder of the share immediately before such sale.
- (2) For giving effect to any such sale the directors may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof.
- (3) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share and he shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

23. The directors shall convene meetings of the members of the Company at such times and in such manner and place as the directors consider necessary or desirable, and they shall convene such a meeting upon the written request of members holding no less than 30% of the votes of the issued voting shares in the Company.
24. Seven days' notice at the least specifying the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and general nature of the business to be conducted shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons whose names on the date the notice is given appear as members in the register of members of the Company and who are entitled to vote.
25. A meeting of the members shall be deemed to have been validly held, notwithstanding that it is held in contravention of the requirement to give notice.
26. Notice of the meeting is waived by an absolute majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting.
27. The inadvertent failure of the directors to give notice of a meeting to a member, or the fact that a member has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

28. A meeting of the members may on the application of a member or director of the Company be ordered by the Court if:
- (a) it is impracticable to call or conduct a meeting of the members of a company in the manner specified in the Act or in these Articles; or
 - (b) if it is in the interest of the members of the Company that a meeting of members is held.

PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

29. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. A quorum shall consist of the holder or holders present in person or by proxy of a majority of more than 50% of the voting shares.
30. If, within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be dissolved.
31. At every meeting the members present shall choose someone of their number to be the chairman. If the members are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the person representing the greatest number of shares entitled to vote and who is present at the meeting shall preside as chairman failing which the oldest individual person shall take the chair.
32. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
33. At any meeting, a resolution put to the vote shall be decided on a show of hands by a simple majority unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
- (a) by the chairman; or
 - (b) by any member present in person, voting trustee, committee or by proxy and representing not less than one tenth of the shares entitled to vote.
34. Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

35. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
36. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
37. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands, or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place, or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

38. At any meeting of members whether on a show of hands or on a poll, every member entitled to vote and who is present in person, by a voting trustee, by a committee, or by proxy shall have one vote for every voting share of which he is the holder.
39. A member may be represented at a meeting of members by a voting trustee, by a committee, or by proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of that member.
40. A resolution which has been notified to all members and which has been approved by a majority in excess of 50% of the votes of those members in the form of one or more documents in writing or by telex, telegram, cable, or other written electronic communication shall forthwith, without the need for any notice, become effectual as a resolution of the members.
41. If a committee shall be appointed for any member who is entitled to vote and who is of unsound mind that member may vote by his committee.
42. If two or more persons are jointly entitled to a share or shares and if more than one of such persons shall vote in person or by voting trustee or by committee or by proxy at any meeting of members, the vote of that person whose name appears first among such voting joint holders in the register of members shall alone be counted.
43. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in such form as the chairman of the meeting shall accept as properly evidencing the wishes of the member appointing the proxy.
44. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer unless the appointer is a corporation or other form of legal entity other than one or more individuals holding as joint owners in which case the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of an individual duly authorised by such corporation or legal entity to execute the same.
45. The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy so authorised may call for a notarially certified copy of such authority which shall be produced within seven days of being so requested or the vote or votes cast by such proxy shall be disregarded.

46. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be produced at the place appointed for the meeting before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.
47. A member of the Company shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of members if:
 - (a) he participates by telephone or other electronic means; and
 - (b) all members participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

48. A corporation or other form of corporate legal entity which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the members of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.
49. An action that may be taken by members of the Company at a meeting of members may also be taken by a resolution of members consented to in writing, or by telex, telegram, cable, or other written electronic communication without the need for any notice.
50. A resolution consented to in writing may consist of several documents including electronic communication in like form each signed or assented to by one or more members.

DIRECTORS

51. The number of the directors shall be not less than one nor more than fifteen.
52.
 - (1) The first director or directors shall be appointed by the first Registered Agent of the Company within such time after the date of incorporation of the Company as may be prescribed by law. Thereafter, the directors shall be elected by the directors or members who are entitled to vote for such period.
 - (2) Where the Company has only one member who is an individual and that member is also the sole director of the Company, that sole member/director, may by instrument in writing, nominate a person who is not disqualified from being a director of the Company under the Act, as a reserve director of the Company to act in place of the sole director on the event of the death of the sole director/member.

57. A vacancy in the board of directors may be filled by a resolution of the directors or a resolution of the members who are entitled to vote.

59. (1) A director shall not require a share qualification, but nevertheless shall be entitled to attend and speak at any meeting of the members.
- (2) A trustee of designated shares in the Company which are held under a Virgin Islands Special Trust shall not be a director of the Company.
60. (1) A director by writing under his hand deposited at the Registered Office of the Company, may from time to time appoint another director or another person to be his alternate.
- (2) Every such alternate shall be entitled to be given notice of meetings of the directors and to attend and vote as a director at any such meeting at which the director appointing him is not personally present and generally at such meeting to have and exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of the director appointing him.
61. Every such alternate shall be deemed to be an officer of the Company and shall not be deemed to be an agent of the director appointing him.
62. If undue delay or difficulty would be occasioned by giving notice to a director of a resolution of which his approval is sought, his alternate (if any) shall be entitled to signify approval of the same on behalf of that director.
63. The remuneration of an alternate shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the director appointing him, and shall consist of such portion of the last mentioned remuneration as shall be agreed between such alternate and the director appointing him.
64. A director by writing under his hand deposited at the Registered Office of the Company may at any time revoke the appointment of an alternate appointed by him.
65. If a director shall die or cease to hold the office of director, the appointment of his alternate shall thereupon cease.
66. The directors may, by resolution, fix the emoluments of directors in respect of services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity to the Company. The directors may also be paid such traveling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the directors, or any committee of the directors or meeting of the members, or in connection with the business of the Company as shall be approved by resolution of the directors.
