Dear Mr. Graham Stack,

Usually we do not react to prank of junk e-mails from unknown individuals. However, I have discovered that in the cc: of your letter you have indicated a prominent Ukrainian journalist. This gives an idea that you are seriously concerned on the issues raised in your request.

In brief. We are a reputable Law Firm and never ever were involved in any bribe or corruption cases. The answer to your questions is negative.

Since breaking, hacking or any other means of interfering the computer networks is a criminal offence according to the Criminal Code of Ukraine we ask you to refrain from involving us in details of your actions and investigations.

With very best regards,

Maksym Lavrynovych

Subject: Question about emails to Mr Gerasimyuk

Dear Mr. Lavrynovych,

This is Graham Stack, a British journalist writing for Organised Crime and Corruption Reporting Project (www.occrp.org).

Regarding the printouts of emails that I gave to your receptionist today:

1) Could you confirm that you use, or have used, the following email address:

ChinaTown <cvin2011@gmail.com>

- 2) Did you offer first prosecutor general Mykola Gerasmiuk a $0.5 million bribe for dropping charges against Armen Sarkisyan in emails on 8-10 July 2014, using this email address?
- 3) Did you write to Mykola Gerasimiuk on September 14, 2014, to inform him about law enforcement pressure on your firm Lavrynovych and Partners, using the same email address?

Many thanks for your help,

Best regards
Graham Stack
